VIQ A. PERVAAZ ELECTED NEW TRUSTEE TO PARTNERS FOR WOMEN AND JUSTICE'S BOARD

Partners for Women and Justice ("Partners") welcomes new trustee, Viq A. Pervaaz, to its Board of Trustees. Pervaaz was approved at Partners' November board meeting. "We are excited with the level of extensive international leadership and management expertise that Viq brings to the table," said Jane Hanson, Executive Director of Partners.

Pervaaz is a Senior Vice President of Corporate Transactions and Transformation and a member of the Executive Global Council at Aon Hewitt. He is responsible for creating a global business practice with specific focus on strategy, M&A, project management and organizational design/effectiveness.

A graduate of Rutgers University College of Pharmacy, he worked at Merck, Cardinal health and MDS Pharma Services before coming to Aon Hewitt. His community contributions include efforts with the Special Olympics and local food banks in New Jersey.

"As a member of Partners' Board I look forward to providing guidance and support to Partners' organizational initiatives with regard to operations, project management and development. I'm honored to have the opportunity to contribute to the amazing work Partners is doing to help women and children in need."

Partners for Women and Justice empowers low-income and abused women to build safe and secure futures for themselves and their children by providing equal access to justice. The organization offers quality legal assistance in domestic violence and family law matters and guidance to promote financial competence and independence.
